ELA – Reading (5 points each.)

These days almost everyone knows that olive oil is good for you. But what most people may not realize is that olive oil is used for a lot more than just food. People make soap out of it, polish diamonds with it, and burn it for light. In ancient times, boiling olive oil was even used as a weapon of war.

Traditionally, olive oil was mainly used by people in Mediterranean countries. But these days, more and more people all over the world are discovering that olive oil may be the best oil for cooking. In the United States, people use five times more olive oil today than they did 20 years ago.

Ninety-nine percent of the world's olive oil is still produced in Mediterranean countries. Spain leads the list in producing the most olive oil, followed by Italy, Greece, and Turkey.
