

Topographic Maps Pg. 157-159

Across

6. If the lines are close together, elevation changes _____.
8. Elevation is measured in feet above this.
10. These lines on a map are usually brown.
13. This is the change in elevation between two lines.
14. Closely spaced contour lines mean the hill is this.
15. The elevation is this at every point on the line.
16. These contour lines have numbers printed on them.
17. Surveyors use these to create accurate maps.

Down

1. These people measure elevation.
2. This color stands for forest and brush.
3. This looks like rings of contour lines on a map.
4. This color stands for human made structures.
5. What direction is the green arrow on pg. 157?
7. These types of lines cover the map.
9. These maps show changes in elevation.
11. This color shows deserts.
12. This is a picture of the Earth's surface.
18. This is printed on the bottom of the map.